THANK YOU!!!!

MANY THANKS TO ALL THE AMAZING VBS VOLUNTEERS! This last week Trinity volunteers did a great job leading VBS participants at "Shipwrecked: Rescued by Jesus" in fun and exciting adventures and activities. One great activity is still evident: Yarn Bombing! The trees around the church have been decorated with colorful yarn. Be sure and check them out if you want to brighten your day!

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

The Visioning committee is imagining Trinity's future as it pertains to our physical building and property. They are asking for your thoughts with a survey. Ideas may begin with attractive landscaping, lighting, and appealing signage, to additional building space, a new kitchen, parking, and anything you imagine. You can fill out the survey by email, Facebook, or paper survey in worship on June 10. Questions? Contact Carmen Raines, carmenraines@att.net, 250-1325. Additional information is available in June Talking Trinity newsletter.

FINANCIAL PEACE UNIVERSITY AT TRINITY - JUNE 3 - JULY 29

DAY CAMP YARD SIGNS

We would still appreciate help advertising our upcoming Day Camp - June 25-29. What we have are temporary yard signs that can let families know about our Camp. They're temporary and need to be put where people can see them. We'd love to have you take one and then return them after we are done registering campers. They're reusable. If it is really windy, we'd love to have you bring the sign indoors. So just sign the sheet telling us you're taking one. Questions contact Karen.

It's time to sign up for Day Camp at Trinity. Day Camp is June 25-29 from 9 am - 5 pm. Day Camp is for youth who are entering first grade through entering 7th grade. Cost is $60 per child.
